 - Child support actually paid or received for other children from other relationships;
 - Gifts;

 - Possession of wealth;
 - Extraordinary income of a child;
 - Tax planning which results in greater benefit to the children;
 - A nonrecurring source of income;

 - Special needs of disabled children;
 - Special medical, educational, or psychological needs of the children;
 - The child spends a significant amount of time with the parent who is obligated to make a support transfer payment. The deviation does not result in insufficient funds in the receiving parent's household to meet the basic needs of the child. The child does not receive public assistance;
 - Children from other relationships;
 - Costs incurred or anticipated to be incurred by the parents in compliance with court-ordered reunification efforts or under a voluntary placement agreement with an agency supervising the child;
